India-Greece Bilateral Relations

India's has traditionally enjoyed friendly bilateral ties with Greece. This has been mainly characterized by the political support each country has shown for the other on core position at the international level. Over the years close personal ties have also been forged between senior political leaders in both countries.

2. Greece has consistently supported India on sensitive issues such as Jammu & Kashmir, India's membership in a reformed and expanded UNSC, our membership to various non-proliferation regimes like the NSG etc. Following India's nuclear weapon test in 1998, while other European powers were calling for sanctions against India, the Greek defence Minister paid a bilateral visit in December 1998 and signed an MoU on Defence Cooperation. India has similarly shown consistent support to Greece on its core international interests particularly related to the Cyprus issue, and its positions on the maritime issues with Turkey.

3. Historical Linkages: Historically India's contacts with Greece can be traced back to 2500 years ago. Trading between the Mauryan Kings and Greece is evidenced by coinage and writings. In 326 BC, Alexander's expedition led him to the North-Western part of the Indian subcontinent as far as the Hyphasis (Beas River) where he fought with Raja Puru, King of Pauravaa (between the Jhelum and Chenab) and King Ambhi who ruled at Taxila. The Mauryan dynasty was a contemporary to Alexander. Chanakya in Chandragupta's Court records in Arthashastra speaks about Yavan Ambassador in the Kings' court named Megasthenes. Gandhara art is believed to be a fusion of Indian and Greek influences.

4. Recent high level bilateral visits: Diplomatic relations were established between the two countries in May 1950. Greece opened its Embassy in Delhi in 1950 and India its Embassy in Athens in 1978. Exchange of visits at HOS/HOG and Foreign Ministers level has been taking place at a moderate frequency since the establishment of diplomatic ties (Annexure 1).

5. Recent Foreign Minister level visits include the visit of Greek Foreign Minister G. Gerapetritis to India in February 2024.

6. Prime Minister Narendra Modi paid an official visit to Greece on 25 August 2023 during which both sides announced their decision to upgrade the relationship to a 'strategic partnership'. Greek Prime Minister Mitsotakis paid a State Visit to India on 21-24 2024 on a State Visit and also delivered the keynote address at the Raisina dialogue 2024.

7. Main Institutional Dialogue Mechanism/recent meetings thereof: The three main mechanism for institutionalized bilateral dialogue are the Foreign Office Consultations mechanism (Secretary-level), the "Joint Committee (JC)" mechanism (MoS/Deputy Minister-level) and the MOD mechanism involving meetings of JS(PIC) MoD/Secretary General MoD.

8. Following the Summit in August 2023, it was also decided to establish a new dialogue mechanism between the National Security Council Secretariat in India and its equivalent body in Greece. Dialogue tracks under this new institutional mechanism will take place under the direct supervision of the two National Security Advisors.

9. The 8th Session of the Joint Economic Committee was co-chaired by Minister of State for Commerce and Industry, Mrs. Anupriya Patel and Deputy Minister for Foreign Affairs of the Hellenic Republic, Mr. Konstantinos Fragkogiannis in Athens on April 15, 2022. (May see Annexure 2)

10. The 13th round of India-Greece Foreign Office Consultations were held on 14 June 2023 in Athens between Secretary (West), MEA and the Greek Secretary General in the Foreign Office.

11. The last round of talks under the MoU on Defence Cooperation took place on in

New Delhi between JS(PIC) MoD and Director General (IC) in Greek MoD on 1-4 July 2024.

August 2023 Summit

12. Prime Minister Narendra Modi paid an Official Visit to Greece on 25 August 2023. The visit was considered significant as it was the first visit by an Indian PM level in more than 40 years. As the visit was taking place against the backdrop of significant developments in Europe and around the world the Prime Ministers decided to look at bilateral ties with a fresh lens including developing further the strategic idea of Greece acting as a gateway for India to Europe. It was decided to announce upgradation of bilateral ties to a Strategic Partnership with enhanced cooperation in the political, security and economic fields. On the same occasion Prime Minister Narendra Modi was also honoured personally with the conferment of the 'The Grande Cross of the Order of Honour' by the President of the Hellenic Republic.

February 2024 Summit.

13. Prime Minister Kyriakos Mitsotakis paid a State visit to India on 21-22 February 2024 the first visit of a Greek Prime Minister in 16 years. On the occasion of the State Visit he also attended the inaugural ceremony of Raisina Dialogue 2024, where he delivered the keynote address.

14. Defence Cooperation: While the MoU on Defence Cooperation was signed in 1998 cooperation in this area has remained limited- mainly restricted to occasional high-level military-to-military exchanges or limited scope participation in each others' military training exercises. Indian Naval ships often pay 'port of call' visits to Greek ports while visiting the Mediterranean sea in view of Greece's strategic location. They use the occasion to conduct limited duration PASSEX exercises. However, in July 2024 an official level JWG (Joint Working Group) mechanism was established which held its first meeting.

The recent participation of the Greek Airforce with in the IAF multinational exercise “Tarang Shakti-2024’ with four fighter jets and the Indian Airforce’s participation in the multi national air “Exercise INIOCHOS-24” hosted by Greece in September 2024 with 4 SU-30 MKI represented a significant upgrade in the scope of military to military cooperation.

15. The 1st meeting of the JWG also finalized the annual Military Cooperation Program that presently guides military to military cooperation activities..

16. Economic Cooperation/Trade/Investment/agreements: As per D/o Commerce figures India-Greek bilateral trade in FY 2022-23 was US$ 1943.62 million (approx. US $2 billion). Indian exports were US$ 785.72 million, while imports from Greece US$ 1157.90 million.

17. A review of the top five Export and Import products (Source: Hellenic Statistical Authority) provides some indication of the structure of this trade:

18. Flagship business partnerships in Greece/investments: The Indian infrastructure company GMR Airports Ltd. Has entered into a Euro 850 million joint venture with the Greek GEK-Terna for the construction and operation (30-year concession) of a new international airport at Kasteli in Crete Island. Indian multinational United Phosphorous Limited has opened a Greek subsidiary UPS Hellas and plays a dominant role in the Greek domestic market of plant protection products, fertilizer and Bio-solutions. Dubai based SWITZ group owned by Indian Business man T. Khorakiwala has invested US$ 600 million in various bakery companies in Greece. UTI India has entered into a partnership with Euro Bank Greece to sell two of its international mutual fund products.

19. Culture/Education/People-to-People ties:

- Culture: Under the “Agreement Concerning Cultural Relations”(1961) a practice has developed of signing a limited duration CEP for cultural cooperation from time to time. The “Cultural and Educational Exchange Programme” for the Years 2022-2026 (2022) has been finalized.
- In 2002, Ambassador Dimitris Velissaropoulos who had written several books on India was conferred with Padma Shri award - first ever given to a Greek citizen. In October 2002, the Sahitya Academy elected Dr. Vassilis Vitsaxis, a distinguished Greek diplomat and well-known scholar, as its Honorary Fellow in recognition of his contribution to the promotion of the understanding of Indian culture. Prof. Nicholas Kazanas, a distinguished Greek Indologist, was conferred with Padma Shri award in 2021.
- Education: A "Dimitrios Galanos" Chair for Hellenic Studies has been established at Jawaharlal Nehru University, New Delhi in September 2000.

An MoU between FSI and Greek Diplomatic Academy for cooperation in the field of diplomatic training (2018) was signed but is not active.

As part of educational reforms being undertaken in Greece, Universities in the Hellenic Republic have started exploring expanding educational opportunities for Indian students. Most efforts are presently taking place at the individual university level, operating through educational agencies in India.

20. Indian Community: According to 2011 Greek census the number of Indian community in Greece is 11,333.
